

Map 2 The Sedgcombe Wood Loop

3.2 km 1 hour moderate (10-minute detour to The Bakers Arms pub Broad Campden)

'a walk to take in the peace of Sedgcombe plantation. The path winds its way through the trees, before dropping down past Sedgcombe Wood and then into Northwick Business Centre. The business centre was once a camp for a Polish community displaced during World War Two. The walk runs past a very interesting war memorial, before running back into the plantation and then on to the farm'.

For those not staying at www.greystonefarmcaravansite.co.uk, please do not park at Greystone Farm without prior permission from Emma Harrison, contact details on website. Alternatively, turn left out of farm drive, after approximately 150m, park in layby. Please don't park in farm gateway. Once parked, cross the stile at the layby, turn immediately right and enter plantation. Follow path to waymark. At waymark continue straight on, climbing uphill through plantation.

For those staying at Greystone Farm caravan site, turn right out of cl field, walk down farm drive, cross road, enter plantation and at waymark turn right, climbing uphill through plantation.

Cross dirt track and continue on path.

As path bears left and starts to level out, walk to the waymark sign, continue straight on the path through plantation.

(A detour can be made to The Bakers Arms pub in Broad Campden at this point. At the waymark, turn right, exit plantation, cross road, cross stile, walk down steep hill. Cross stile in between houses, cross road, continue on path other side of road. End of path, turn left to main village road, at road turn right to pub).

Continue on path in plantation, until a stile is reached.

Cross stile, turn left and walk down steep concrete track past Sedgcombe wood.

At end of concrete, cross stile into Northwick Business Centre.

Turn left, walk downhill along road, with wood on lhs and buildings on rhs.

About $\frac{3}{4}$ of the way down, War Memorial is on rhs.

Continue on road to bottom of slope, don't follow road as it bears right.

If parked in layby, cross stile straight ahead back to layby.

If staying at Greystone Farm, don't cross stile, but turn left into plantation. Follow path in plantation until waymark.

At waymark, turn right, exit plantation, cross road and walk along farm drive.
